

EXCERPTOR

Meaning: Excerptor: a person who selects and extracts passages from a larger text for the purpose of summarization or emphasis.

1. The excerptor skillfully selected the most impactful passages from the lengthy novel.
2. As an excerptor, her job was to distill complex texts into digestible summaries.
3. The professor acted as an excerptor for the anthology, ensuring each piece was relevant to the theme.
4. Each excerptor brings a unique perspective, shaping how readers interpret the original work.
5. In his role as an excerptor, he aimed to highlight the author's intent while preserving their voice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/excerptor>