

EXCITANT

Meaning: Excitant refers to something that stimulates or provokes excitement or activity.

1. The new roller coaster was an excitant experience that thrilled all the riders.
2. Researchers found that the excitant properties of the compound could lead to innovative treatments.
3. The vibrant colors of the festival created an excitant atmosphere that drew in crowds.
4. Her passionate speech served as an excitant for the audience, inspiring them to take action.
5. In the world of neuroscience, stimulants are often referred to as excitants due to their effects on brain activity.
6. The excitant effects of the new energy drink were felt almost immediately after consumption.
7. Scientists are studying the excitant properties of certain compounds found in natural herbs.
8. In some cases, caffeine can act as a mild excitant, increasing alertness and energy levels.
9. The thrill of the roller coaster served as a natural excitant, boosting everyone's adrenaline.
10. Her enthusiasm was an excitant for the entire team, motivating them to work harder on the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/excitant>