

EXCITEMENT

Meaning: Excitement is a feeling of great enthusiasm and eagerness, often characterized by heightened emotions and anticipation.

1. The excitement in the air was palpable as the crowd awaited the concert to begin.
2. She could hardly contain her excitement when she received the news that she got the job.
3. The children's faces lit up with excitement as they entered the amusement park.
4. His excitement was infectious, drawing everyone around him into a shared sense of joy.
5. After months of preparation, the team's excitement peaked on the eve of the big game.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/excitement>