

EXCITIVE

Meaning: Excitive (adjective): having the quality of stimulating or provoking action, enthusiasm, or engagement.

1. The excitive nature of the new policy ignited a wave of enthusiasm among the employees.
2. Her excitive speech captivated the audience, making them eager to join her cause.
3. The scientist focused on the excitive factors that trigger certain behaviors in animals.
4. In literature, an excitive theme can often drive the narrative forward, engaging readers deeply.
5. The excitive response from the crowd was palpable as the band took the stage for their first song.
6. The excitive nature of the new marketing strategy energized the entire team.
7. In psychology, the excitive factors can greatly influence an individual's decision-making process.
8. The excitive response to the unexpected news was immediate and intense.
9. Her excitive personality made her the perfect candidate for the role of event coordinator.
10. They focused on excitive elements in their research to better understand consumer behavior.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/excitive>