

EXCLAIMER

Meaning: EXCLAIMER: A person who expresses strong emotions or opinions, often through passionate speech or dramatic punctuation.

1. The exclaimer drew everyone's attention with their passionate speech.
2. In her letters, the exclaimer often emphasized her points with dramatic punctuation.
3. During the presentation, the exclaimer's enthusiasm was contagious, sparking engagement among the audience.
4. The film featured a character who was an exclaimer, always expressing their feelings in the most exaggerated way.
5. As an exclaimer, he believed that strong emotions deserved to be voiced loudly and clearly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exclaimer>