

EXCLUSIONIST

Meaning: Exclusionist (noun): a person or policy that seeks to limit or restrict the inclusion of certain groups, particularly in the context of immigration or social policies.

1. The exclusionist policies of the administration sparked significant protests across the country.
2. His exclusionist views were challenged during the heated debate on immigration reform.
3. Many critics argue that an exclusionist approach undermines the principles of diversity and inclusion.
4. The exclusionist rhetoric in the campaign alienated many potential voters who valued unity.
5. In contrast to her exclusionist perspective, her colleagues advocated for a more inclusive strategy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exclusionist>