

EXCULPATORY

Meaning: Exculpatory refers to evidence or statements that clear someone of guilt or blame.

1. The lawyer presented exculpatory evidence that proved her client's innocence.
2. During the trial, the judge allowed the introduction of exculpatory statements made by the defendant.
3. Many believed that the new findings were exculpatory and would significantly alter the case's outcome.
4. The defendant's alibi was supported by exculpatory testimony from several witnesses.
5. In light of the exculpatory documents, the prosecution faced intense scrutiny over its handling of the case.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exculpatory>