

EXCUSATOR

Meaning: Excusator: a person who provides justification or excuses, particularly in legal contexts regarding absence or liability.

1. The excusator prepared a lengthy justification for his absence from the meeting.
2. In legal contexts, the role of an excusator is crucial for understanding the nuances of liability.
3. Her ability to be an excusator helped diffuse the tension among her peers during the heated debate.
4. The judge considered the excusator's statements before making a final ruling on the case.
5. As an excusator, he often found himself juggling the delicate balance between honesty and appeasement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/excusator>