

EXECRATORY

Meaning: EXECRATORY (adjective): expressing strong disapproval or condemnation.

1. Her execratory remarks about the unethical practices in the industry sparked a heated debate.
2. The execratory tone of his speech left no doubt about his feelings towards corruption.
3. In the painting, the artist's execratory brushstrokes conveyed a deep sense of anger and frustration.
4. The execratory language used in the article aimed to criticize the government's failure to act.
5. As she listened to the execratory comments from the critics, she felt a surge of determination to prove them wrong.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/execratory>