

EXHAUST

Meaning: Exhaust means to drain someone of energy or strength, leaving them extremely tired or fatigued.

1. The long hike in the mountains completely exhausted me.
2. After a full day of meetings, I felt utterly exhausted and ready to collapse.
3. The car's exhaust system needed repairs to reduce harmful emissions.
4. She was exhausted from working overtime for several weeks straight.
5. The team's relentless practice schedule began to exhaust their enthusiasm for the sport.
6. The long hike through the mountains left me utterly exhausted.
7. After working overtime for several weeks, she felt mentally exhausted by the end of the project.
8. The car's engine began to exhaust smoke, indicating a serious mechanical issue.
9. He chose to exhaust all possible options before making a final decision.
10. The relentless pace of city life can exhaust even the most energetic individuals.
11. The long hike in the mountains completely exhausted her.
12. After a full day of meetings, he felt mentally exhausted.
13. The car's engine began to exhaust smoke after running for too long.
14. She had to exhaust all her options before making a decision.
15. The relentless heat of the summer sun can easily exhaust anyone.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exhaust>