

EXHIBITIVE

Meaning: Exhibitive: serving to display or demonstrate something, particularly in a way that reveals or emphasizes its qualities or characteristics.

1. The artist's exhibit was particularly exhibitive, showcasing her innovative approach to modern themes.
2. His passion for science was exhibitive, evident in the way he enthusiastically shared his findings with others.
3. The documentary was an exhibitive piece that highlighted the struggles and triumphs of the local community.
4. During the conference, her exhibitive presentation captivated the audience, demonstrating her deep knowledge of the subject.
5. The museum's latest exhibit was both informative and exhibitive, allowing visitors to engage with the artifacts in a meaningful way.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exhibitive>