EXHORTATIVE

Meaning: Exhortative: intended to encourage or urge someone to take action or adopt a particular course of behavior.

1. The speaker delivered an exhortative message that inspired the audience to take action.
2. Her exhortative tone urged the students to strive for excellence in their studies.
3. The coach's exhortative words motivated the team to give their best during the final match.
4. In his exhortative essay, the author emphasized the importance of community service.
5. The preacher's exhortative sermon resonated deeply with the congregation, prompting many to reflect on their lives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exhortative