

EXONERATING

Meaning: Exonerating refers to the act of clearing someone from blame or fault, especially in a legal context.

1. The new evidence proved exonerating for the wrongly accused man.
2. Her testimony was exonerating, clearing him of any suspicion.
3. The judge's ruling was exonerating, allowing him to reclaim his reputation.
4. After years of legal battles, the exonerating findings finally brought peace to the family.
5. The documentary revealed exonerating facts that had been overlooked in the trial.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exonerating>