

EXONERATOR

Meaning: Exonerator: a person or thing that clears someone from blame or fault, especially in a legal context.

1. The judge acted as an exonerator, clearing the defendant's name after new evidence emerged.
2. In a surprising turn of events, the DNA test results served as the exonerator for the man wrongfully convicted.
3. The relentless investigation ultimately led to the discovery of an exonerator who could testify to the accused's innocence.
4. Many hoped that the documentary would serve as an exonerator for the activists wrongly jailed for their beliefs.
5. After years of legal battles, the new findings finally positioned the lawyer as the exonerator of her client.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exonerator>