

EXORTIVE

Meaning: Exortive: intended to encourage or urge someone to take action or adopt a particular course of behavior.

1. The speaker's exortive tone inspired the audience to take action on environmental issues.
2. In her exortive letter, she urged her friends to participate in the charity event.
3. The coach's exortive speech motivated the team to give their best in the championship.
4. His exortive comments during the meeting encouraged everyone to share their ideas freely.
5. The exortive nature of the campaign aimed to rally community support for the local project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exortive>