

EXPEDIMENT

Meaning: Expediment: a means or method employed to achieve a particular end, especially in a practical or efficient manner.

1. The expediment of hiring a consultant proved invaluable for the project's success.
2. In the face of tight deadlines, the team resorted to an expediment that streamlined their workflow.
3. She viewed the temporary solution as an expediment rather than a long-term fix.
4. The expediment allowed them to bypass bureaucratic red tape and move forward quickly.
5. They implemented the expediment with the understanding that it was a stopgap measure.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expediment>