

EXPEND

Meaning: To expend means to use up or spend resources, such as energy or money, in pursuit of a goal or activity.

1. To achieve her goals, she decided to expend all her energy on the project.
2. The company plans to expend significant resources on research and development.
3. It is wise to carefully consider how much time you wish to expend on each task.
4. If we continue to expend our funds at this rate, we may face financial difficulties.
5. He chose to expend his free time volunteering at the local shelter.
6. We should carefully consider how we expend our resources on this project.
7. The athlete had to expend all her energy to win the championship.
8. In times of crisis, it's crucial not to expend too much manpower unnecessarily.
9. He chose to expend his efforts on volunteer work rather than on personal gain.
10. To achieve his goals, he was willing to expend both time and effort.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expend>