

EXPENSEFULL

Meaning: Expensefull: (adjective) characterized by high costs or significant financial expenditure.

1. The project turned out to be quite expensefull, exceeding our initial budget by a significant margin.
2. Traveling during peak season can make any vacation feel expensefull to the average traveler.
3. She realized that her impulse purchases were making her monthly expenses feel increasingly expensefull.
4. The expensefull nature of living in the city often deters young families from settling there.
5. Choosing a private school can often lead to an expensefull educational experience for many parents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expensefull>