EXPERIMENTATOR

Meaning: Experimentator: a person who conducts experiments, particularly in scientific research, often involving careful design and problem-solving.

1. The experimentator meticulously designed the study to ensure accurate results.
2. As an experimentator, she often faced unexpected challenges that required creative problem-solving.
3. The role of the experimentator is crucial in the scientific method, as they guide the research process.
4. Colleagues admired the experimentator's ability to remain objective despite personal biases.
5. With each trial, the experimentator gained deeper insights into the behavior of the subjects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/experimentator