EXPIATOR

Meaning: Expiator: a person or act that atones for guilt or sin, often through rituals or sacrifices.

1. The ancient ritual served as an expiator for the community's collective guilt.
2. In many cultures, sacrifices were made to appease the gods and act as an expiator for sins.
3. She sought an expiator in her writings, hoping to atone for the mistakes of her past.
4. The protagonist's journey across the desert became a profound expiator of his inner turmoil.
5. He believed that forgiveness was the ultimate expiator, cleansing the spirit of burdens.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expiator