

EXPIRING

Meaning: EXPIRING: the act of coming to an end or reaching a termination date, typically referring to a contract, membership, or agreement.

1. The contract is expiring at the end of this month.
2. Her membership is expiring soon, so she needs to renew it.
3. The medication should not be used after its expiring date.
4. He felt a sense of urgency as the offer was expiring in just a few hours.
5. With the deadline expiring, they worked tirelessly to complete the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expiring>