

EXPLODENT

Meaning: Explodent: a substance capable of causing an explosion or violent burst, often used in explosives or pyrotechnics.

1. The scientist carefully examined the properties of the new explodent for safety.
2. In the film, the villain used an explodent to create chaos in the city.
3. Workers were trained to handle the explodent with extreme caution to prevent accidents.
4. The military developed a specialized explodent designed for controlled demolitions.
5. Understanding the chemical composition of the explodent was crucial for the experiment's success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/explodent>