

EXPLOSION

Meaning: An explosion is a sudden and violent release of energy that produces a loud noise and often results in the scattering of debris or a display of light and color.

1. The explosion shook the entire building, leaving debris scattered across the street.
2. After the fireworks display, the crowd erupted in cheers, celebrating the final explosion of colors in the night sky.
3. Scientists conducted experiments to better understand the chemical reactions that lead to a controlled explosion.
4. The sudden explosion of the gas tank caused panic among the onlookers at the construction site.
5. In the aftermath of the explosion, investigators worked tirelessly to determine its cause and prevent future incidents.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/explosion>