

EXPOLIATION

Meaning: Expoliation refers to the act of stripping or plundering valuable resources or property, often resulting in significant harm or loss.

1. The expoliation of natural resources has led to severe environmental degradation.
2. Historians argue that the expoliation of indigenous lands was a tragic consequence of colonial expansion.
3. The film critiques the expoliation of cultural heritage by foreign corporations.
4. During the meeting, we discussed the expoliation of workers' rights in the garment industry.
5. Many activists are rallying against the expoliation of public goods for private profit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expoliation>