

EXPONENT

Meaning: Exponent: a person who advocates, represents, or is a leading figure in a particular field or movement.

1. The mathematician was regarded as an exponent of modern algebra.
2. Her innovative ideas made her an exponent of sustainable architecture.
3. He became an exponent of the new teaching methods at the conference.
4. As an exponent of classical music, she performed at prestigious venues worldwide.
5. The author is often described as an exponent of postmodern literature.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exponent>