

EXPORT

Meaning: EXPORT (verb): To send goods or services to another country for sale or trade.

1. The country relies heavily on the export of its agricultural products to boost the economy.
2. Many technology firms are looking to expand their export operations to international markets.
3. The government implemented new policies to facilitate the export of renewable energy solutions.
4. Exporting handmade crafts has become a popular way for local artisans to reach global customers.
5. In recent years, the export of vintage wines has seen a significant increase in demand worldwide.
6. The country aims to increase its export of agricultural products to meet global demand.
7. Many businesses rely on export markets to boost their revenue and expand their reach.
8. The government implemented new policies to facilitate the export of technology and innovation.
9. She works in a logistics company that specializes in the export of consumer goods overseas.
10. Exporting locally-made crafts has become a significant source of income for many artisans.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/export>