

EXPOSITIVE

Meaning: Expositive (adjective): serving to explain or clarify; intended to provide information or elucidate concepts.

1. The expositive nature of her speech captivated the audience from start to finish.
2. His expositive writing style made complex ideas accessible to all readers.
3. During the presentation, the expositive approach helped clarify the intricate details of the project.
4. The teacher's expositive techniques fostered a deeper understanding of the subject among her students.
5. In her essay, she employed an expositive tone to effectively convey her argument.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expositive>