

EXPOUND

Meaning: To expound means to explain or present in detail, often elaborating on a particular subject or idea.

1. The professor took an entire lecture to expound on the complexities of quantum mechanics.
2. In her article, she sought to expound the benefits of sustainable living to a wider audience.
3. During the meeting, he expounded his vision for the project in a clear and compelling manner.
4. The author expounds on the themes of love and loss throughout her novel.
5. To foster understanding, the speaker expounded on the historical context of the event.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expound>