

EXPULSE

Meaning: Expulse (verb): to drive out or force away from a place or situation.

1. The sudden loud noise served to expulse the curious animals from their hiding places.
2. In an effort to expulse negativity from her life, she surrounded herself with positive influences.
3. The scientist aimed to expulse any contaminants that could interfere with the experiment's results.
4. During the training exercise, the coach encouraged the players to expulse any doubts they had about their abilities.
5. The strong winds were enough to expulse the fog that had settled over the valley overnight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expulse>