

EXPULSIVE

Meaning: Expulsive refers to something that causes a forceful ejection or release, often resulting in a sudden or dramatic effect.

1. The volcanic eruption was characterized by its expulsive force, sending ash and lava high into the atmosphere.
2. In the debate, her expulsive remarks caught everyone off guard and shifted the tone of the discussion.
3. The expulsive nature of the device made it a powerful tool for clearing blockages in pipes.
4. His expulsive laughter filled the room, breaking the tension and bringing smiles to everyone's faces.
5. The team faced an expulsive challenge when they had to quickly adapt to the unexpected changes in the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/expulsive>