

EXTENSIONIST

Meaning: An extensionist is a person who promotes the expansion of services or deadlines to better serve the needs of individuals or communities.

1. The extensionist advocated for longer deadlines to accommodate all students' needs.
2. As an extensionist, she believed in expanding the reach of educational programs to underserved communities.
3. The conference featured several extensionists who shared innovative methods for agricultural development.
4. His role as an extensionist often required him to travel to remote areas to provide essential resources.
5. The extensionist's research highlighted the importance of community involvement in extension services.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extensionist>