

EXTERMINATORY

Meaning: Exterminatory: relating to the act of destroying or eradicating, especially in reference to pests or undesirable elements.

1. The exterminatory methods employed by the pest control service proved highly effective in eradicating the infestation.
2. In his novel, the author used an exterminatory approach to highlight the consequences of unchecked technological advancement.
3. The exterminatory tendencies of the invasive species have raised concerns among environmentalists and conservationists.
4. As the exterminatory campaign against the pests began, residents hoped for a quick resolution to the problem.
5. The documentary shed light on the exterminatory practices that have historically affected various wildlife populations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exterminatory>