

EXTERRANEOUS

Meaning: Exterraneous refers to information or elements that are irrelevant or unrelated to the main topic or purpose.

1. The report was filled with exterraneous details that distracted from the main argument.
2. In her research, she focused on exterraneous factors that could influence the outcome of the experiment.
3. The speaker's exterraneous anecdotes led the audience away from the core message.
4. To improve clarity, it's essential to eliminate any exterraneous information from your writing.
5. The exterraneous comments during the meeting only served to confuse the participants further.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exterraneous>