

EXTINGUISHABLE

Meaning: Extinguishable: capable of being extinguished or brought to an end, often used in reference to fires or hopes.

1. The fire was so intense that it seemed almost extinguishable.
2. Their hopes were extinguishable, but they refused to give up.
3. The candle burned so brightly that it felt like nothing could extinguish it, yet it was extinguishable.
4. In rare circumstances, even the most stubborn flames can be extinguishable with the right approach.
5. She realized that some problems were more extinguishable than she initially thought.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extinguishable>