

EXTIRPABLE

Meaning: Extirpable: capable of being completely removed or eradicated from a specific environment or context.

1. The invasive species was deemed extirpable from the ecosystem with the right conservation efforts.
2. Many experts believe that certain diseases are extirpable through rigorous public health initiatives.
3. The local government initiated a program to eliminate extirpable pests that threatened native flora.
4. Through habitat restoration, the team aimed to ensure that the endangered species was not extirpable from the region.
5. The biologist argued that the extirpable population could be revived if proper measures were implemented immediately.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extirpable>