

EXTIRPATIVE

Meaning: Extirpative refers to a method or approach aimed at completely removing or eradicating a specific entity, such as a tumor or invasive species, from a particular area or environment.

1. The surgeon considered an extirpative approach to eliminate the tumor completely.
2. In ecology, extirpative methods can help control invasive species that threaten local biodiversity.
3. The researcher proposed an extirpative strategy to eradicate the disease from the affected population.
4. Despite its effectiveness, the extirpative technique raised ethical concerns among the medical community.
5. The government implemented an extirpative policy to address the rampant corruption within the agency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extirpative>