

EXTIRPATORY

Meaning: Extirpatory refers to techniques or methods used to completely remove or eradicate something, such as a tumor or invasive species, from a specific area.

1. The medical team employed extirpatory techniques to remove the tumor completely.
2. In botany, extirpatory methods can help control invasive species by eliminating them from a specific area.
3. The extirpatory surgery was deemed necessary to prevent the spread of the disease to surrounding tissues.
4. Researchers are exploring the extirpatory effects of certain chemicals on harmful bacteria in water sources.
5. His extirpatory approach in conservation aimed to eradicate the non-native plants threatening local ecosystems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extirpatory>