

EXTOLMENT

Meaning: Extolment (noun): the act of praising or acclaiming someone or something highly.

1. His extolment of her achievements left her feeling appreciated and motivated.
2. The teacher's extolment of the students' hard work encouraged them to aim even higher.
3. In his speech, he offered an extolment of the community's efforts to support the local economy.
4. The extolment of the artist's contributions to the culture sparked interest in her lesser-known works.
5. Her extolment of traditional craftsmanship highlighted the importance of preserving cultural heritage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extolment>