

EXTORT

Meaning: EXTORT: To obtain money, goods, or services from someone through coercion, threats, or intimidation.

1. The criminal was arrested after he attempted to extort money from local businesses.
  2. She refused to be intimidated by the threats made to extort her silence.
  3. The detective worked tirelessly to gather evidence against the group trying to extort the wealthy businessman.
  4. Extorting funds from unsuspecting victims is a serious crime with severe consequences.
  5. In a surprising twist, the victim turned the tables and reported the extortion attempt to the authorities.
  6. The criminal attempted to extort money from the business owner by threatening to reveal damaging information.
  7. She was shocked to discover that someone was trying to extort her by using her private photos as leverage.
  8. The government took strong action against those who sought to extort funds from vulnerable citizens.
  9. His attempts to extort a confession from the suspect were met with resistance and indignation.
  10. The organization denounced the practice of trying to extort donations under false pretenses.
  11. The criminals attempted to extort money from the local business owners using threats.
  12. She was horrified to discover that someone was trying to extort sensitive information from her.
  13. His reputation was damaged when it was revealed that he had tried to extort a favor from a politician.
  14. The blackmailer sought to extort her by threatening to release private photos if she didn't comply.
  15. Authorities are investigating allegations that the group attempted to extort funds from charitable organizations.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extort>