

EXTORTIOUS

Meaning: Extortious refers to actions or demands that involve obtaining something, typically money or favors, through coercion or threats.

1. The extortious demands of the blackmailer left her feeling helpless and afraid.
2. In a shocking turn of events, the politician was accused of extortious behavior in exchange for favors.
3. The company's extortious practices drew the ire of consumers and advocacy groups alike.
4. His extortious tactics were finally exposed, leading to widespread condemnation from the community.
5. Victims of extortious schemes often feel trapped, unable to report the crime without fear of retribution.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extortious>