

EXTRUCTIVE

Meaning: Extructive refers to the process or properties that lead to the outward alteration or transformation of a substance or environment, often resulting in significant changes.

1. The extructive nature of the process led to significant changes in the landscape.
2. Scientists studied the extructive properties of the new material to understand its potential applications.
3. In their research, they highlighted the extructive aspects of the mineral extraction techniques employed.
4. The artist's extructive approach to sculpture revealed new dimensions in her work.
5. Understanding the extructive characteristics of the environment is crucial for sustainable development.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/extructive>