

EXUDATION

Meaning: Exudation refers to the process of a substance, such as moisture or fluid, being released or discharged from a surface or tissue.

1. The exudation of moisture from the leaves created a misty atmosphere in the early morning.
2. In the context of wound healing, exudation can indicate the presence of infection or inflammation.
3. The scientists observed the exudation of various substances from the plant roots into the surrounding soil.
4. Exudation plays a crucial role in the nutrient cycling of ecosystems, as it helps to enrich the surrounding environment.
5. After the heavy rain, the exudation of water from the saturated ground led to pooling in the low-lying areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exudation>