

EXULCERATIVE

Meaning: Exulcerative refers to a condition characterized by the formation of ulcers or open sores, often causing significant tissue damage.

1. The patient's symptoms were exacerbated by the exulcerative condition affecting his gastrointestinal tract.
2. Doctors are concerned about the exulcerative lesions that have developed on the patient's skin.
3. Treatment options for exulcerative diseases often involve a combination of medication and lifestyle changes.
4. Research into exulcerative disorders is crucial for developing effective therapies and improving patient outcomes.
5. The exulcerative nature of the disease made it challenging for the doctors to find a suitable course of treatment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exulcerative>