

EXULCERATORY

Meaning: Exulceratory refers to causing or characterized by the formation of ulcers, leading to pain and discomfort.

1. The exulceratory nature of the disease left the patient in constant pain and discomfort.
2. Doctors often struggle to manage the exulceratory symptoms that accompany severe infections.
3. After the treatment, the exulceratory lesions began to heal, bringing relief to the affected area.
4. The researchers focused on the exulceratory effects of the medication on the patients' skin conditions.
5. He described the exulceratory process in detail, highlighting its impact on the healing timeline.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/exulceratory>