

EYEBALL

Meaning: Eyeball: the spherical, sensitive organ of vision in the eye, consisting of various structures including the cornea, lens, and retina.

1. The doctor carefully examined the patient's eyeball for any signs of injury.
2. During the horror film, a character's eyeball popped out in a shocking scene.
3. She painted a stunning portrait that captured the vivid color of the eyeball.
4. The scientist used a microscope to study the structure of the eyeball.
5. As he peered through the telescope, he felt as if he could see into the very eyeball of the universe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eyeball>