

EYEDROP

Meaning: Eyedrop: a liquid medication administered in small amounts, typically using a dropper, to treat eye conditions.

1. She carefully measured the liquid before using the eyedrop for her irritated eyes.
2. The doctor recommended an eyedrop to alleviate the dryness caused by her allergies.
3. After a long day at the computer, he reached for his soothing eyedrop to relieve the strain.
4. The pharmacy had a wide selection of eyedrop brands, each promising quick relief.
5. With a steady hand, she applied the eyedrop, hoping for immediate comfort from her redness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eyedrop>