

EYEFUL

Meaning: Eyeful: a visually striking or impressive sight.

1. The sunset over the mountains was truly an eyeful, painting the sky in vibrant hues.
2. She wore a stunning dress that was an eyeful, attracting compliments from everyone at the party.
3. The artist's latest painting offers an eyeful of color and emotion that captivates the viewer.
4. As we entered the art gallery, the sculptures provided an eyeful of creativity and craftsmanship.
5. His performance was an eyeful, filled with energy and passion that left the audience in awe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eyeful>