

FABLER

Meaning: FABLER: A person who tells or composes fables or stories, often imparting moral lessons through imaginative narratives.

1. The fabler wove intricate tales that captivated the audience at the storytelling festival.
2. As a renowned fabler, she had a unique ability to impart moral lessons through her whimsical narratives.
3. The children gathered around the fire, eager to hear the fabler's latest adventure filled with talking animals.
4. In his youth, he dreamed of becoming a fabler, inspired by the timeless fables his grandmother shared.
5. Many consider Aesop to be the greatest fabler, as his stories have endured through centuries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fabler>