

FABRICATION

Meaning: FABRICATION: The act of creating or constructing something, often involving a combination of materials or the invention of falsehoods or lies.

1. The artist's latest work is a stunning fabrication of various materials and textures.
2. After the investigation, it became clear that the accusations were based on a fabrication of the truth.
3. The construction team faced delays due to the fabrication of specialized components.
4. Her story was a fabrication, designed to elicit sympathy from her friends.
5. In the world of science, fabrication techniques are crucial for developing new technologies.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/fabrication>