

FACTION

Meaning: Faction: a group within a larger organization or political party that has distinct beliefs or interests, often in conflict with other groups.

1. The political faction within the party has been gaining influence over recent months.
2. She found herself caught between two rival factions in the organization, each with their own agenda.
3. The faction's leaders organized a rally to promote their vision for the future of the community.
4. Despite the disagreements, the factions agreed to meet and discuss a potential compromise.
5. Historical accounts reveal how the faction's power struggles ultimately shaped the course of the revolution.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/faction>